

Hearing Documents

Hearing Video

Panel I |  Panel II

Chairman Darrell Issa Hearing Preview Statement

"State and Municipal Debt: Tough Choices Ahead"

April 14, 2011

Thursday's Full Committee hearing builds on the work of our Subcommittee on TARP, Financial Service

Subcommittee Chairman McHenry made one thing very clear in the first of these hearings: there will be

To understand impediments to reform and what it takes to climb out of a deep fiscal hole, Wisconsin Gov

Governor Peter Shumlin of Vermont will also offer insight into how long-term challenges are being addre

Finally, the hearing will feature experts who understand the inevitable pain that would accompany inaction.

At a time when our federal government is eye-to-eye with a debt burden that threatens our ability to win

|   |                                  |                    |                         |               |
|---|----------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------|---------------|
| Witnesses                                   | Panel I                          |                    |                         |               |
| The Honorable Scott Walker  | Governor                         | State of Wisconsin |                         |               |
| The Honorable Peter Shumlin | Governor                         | State of Vermont   |                         |               |
|   | Dr. Andrew Biggs | Resident Scholar   | The American Enterprise | Institute for |
| Mr. Mark Mix                |                                  |                    |                         |               |
| Dr. Robert Novy-Marx        |                                  |                    |                         |               |
| Dr. Desmond Lachman         |                                  |                    |                         |               |

Other Documents